Intergenerational Offerings

- St. A's values Intergenerational Relationships and provides monthly opportunities to enrich all generations!
- Communities of faith are one of the few remaining institutions that are truly intergenerational.
- Research from the Fuller Youth Institute shows us that the greatest factor for creating a “faith that sticks” is NOT what we teach them, nor how big the youth group is, but rather the number of meaningful adult relationships that kids have within the church community.
- Adults need relationships with younger people to consider new perspectives, to be reminded of joy, and to continue the work of the church once we are gone.
- Please consider joining us for one of our monthly intergenerational, family-friendly offerings (see the Children, Youth and Family newsletter for the most updated information).
